— A BRIO EXCLUSIVE —

2013 PINOT NOIR

Mendocino County

At the headwaters of the Russian River, Mendocino County is considered one of California's pristine and less traveled wine regions. An area known for its simple way of life and breathtaking natural beauty, the grapes grown here express the care that results from generations of family farmers.

Sketchbook Pinot Noir is bright and juicy, with leather and earth on the nose and flavors of Bing cherry, crunchy red fruits, and a delicate, lingering finish.

Pairs well with many Brio dishes, including: Grilled Salmon Fresca, Ravioli DI Bello and the Pasta Pesto.
